

Disaster Relief in Haiti

The National Association of Neonatal Nurses conveys our deepest sympathy to those affected by the devastation in Haiti.

There are two ways to help.

Nurses interested in helping with the relief and recovery efforts are encouraged to become a first responder. Pre-register with a disaster registry or a response organization. These groups ensure that volunteers will have access to training and will be utilized according to the appropriate response plans.

<https://www.citizencorps.gov/cert/>

<http://www.medicalreservecorps.gov/HomePage>

<http://www.redcross.org/donate/volunteer/>

You may also wish to make a financial contribution to relief efforts. Please visit http://blogs.state.gov/index.php/site/entry/disaster_haiti for more information on two primary relief organizations.